APPENDIX 1 (April/12)Presbytery Committee Restructuring Proposal

The following is a proposal to restructure Presbytery committees with the purpose of both reducing the number of committees and of reassessing duties for each. It is recognized we are a small presbytery, and this restructuring is trying to manage the work of Presbytery within its limits of manpower, but we do not want to restructure such that future growth means doing this task again. What this proposal seeks to do is balance both issues.

Below are the following: (1) a list of the present committees with a brief summary of the terms of membership and duties as listed in the Manual of Procedure [MoP]; (2) a proposed restructuring from 6 to 3 committees; (3) notes that need to be considered for each committee about restructuring.

(1) Present Committees, membership terms, duties: this overview is given to see the current requirements and duties of each. Some of the requirements have Synod responsibilities to maintain.

1. Outreach Canada:

Membership - minimum of 4 Presbyters with special interests/abilities
- Chairman represents Presbytery on Synod's ONA Board

Duties - Promote evangelism and church extension

 - Ensure matters of particular congregations' deeds are maintained
 - Handle liability issues concerning Presbytery and Mission congregations.

(2) Restructuring from 6 committees to 3: this restructuring requires adding more duties to each committee that may not have direct bearing on the intent of the original committee, and so requires all to change their thinking on the purpose of the committee. Again additional duties are highlighted as to the committee they come from – i.e. [from M&HW].

1. Outreach Canada:

Membership - minimum of 5 Presbyters with special interests/abilities
 - Chairman represents Presbytery on Synod's ONA Board
 - requires a minimum quorum of 3 Presbyters to meet

 - Oversee licensure/ordination/installation of ministers
 - Oversee particular Churches which have no minister
 - Transfer/dissolve pastoral relations with congregations
 - Guard ethical matters concerning activities of pastors with former congregations

4. Board of Directors: [this title needs to remain because of the CRA business regulations; but this committee would include Congregational Life and Stewardship]

- Membership
- minimum of 5 Presbyters with special interests/abilities
 - [from Stewardship] Treasurer is an ex-officio member
 - [from Stewardship] Chairman represents Presbytery on Synod Board of Stewardship
 - elected for 6 year terms
 - requires a minimum quorum of 3 Presbyters to meet

 - Maintain F.O.G. concerning church property within Presbytery
 - Ensure matters of particular congregations' deeds are maintained
 - Handle liability issues concerning Presbytery and Mission congregations.

[The following duties are from Stewardship]

- Develop programs to deepen commitments of Presbytery's Churches in areas of time / abilities / material goods
- Help churches understand Synod's stewardship programs
- Promote stewardship of Churches
- Responsible for Denominational Ministry Programs of Presbytery
- Coordinate budget needs of Presbytery committees
- Prepare Presbytery's annual budget
- Print/distribute/authorize Presbytery's expenses

[The following duties are from Congregational Life]

- Report on local congregations of Presbytery
- Report on trends/programs/activities and receiving all newsletters of each congregation and organizations within each congregation.
- Maintain the history of Presbytery and its congregations
- Examine and report on Session/congregational meeting records
- Give report on delinquencies of congregations
- [NEW] –Excuses & resolutions report*

(3) Notes that need to be considered for each committee about restructuring: the 3 committee proposal will work even as our Presbytery grows, particularly if some of the following points are in place:

- a) Each committee would have minimum 6-7 men serving
- b) Each committee can sublet duties to 2-3 men – i.e. M&HW can assign the nominations duties, which is mostly once a year duty, to a couple men to take care of and bring the report back to the committee for recommendation to Presbytery.
- c) The Chairman of each committee would have to do a bit more overseeing, but should not bear the brunt of the work. Having a vice-chairman per committee will be necessary to help with the workload.
- d) Perhaps most obvious and important, the Chairman of each committee will have to make sure that all teaching and ruling elders are engaged in their committee duties. Since it is difficult for some ruling elders to attend Presbytery meetings their involvement at the committee level becomes even more necessary. For some it is not just getting the time off, but loss of salary that inhibits their ability to attend, for others it is neglect. Perhaps Presbytery needs to consider ways to more engage ruling elders to their Presbytery duties.
- e) This restructuring is going to mean more work apart from Presbytery's stated meetings by conference calls, but that is the purpose of these committees – to do the leg-work outside of Presbytery.
- f) Reconsider the 1-year hiatus rule for serving on a committee. Each committee is to have men with special interest and ability, and if the committee is working very well, why disrupt it. If someone wants to change from a committee after their term, then consider it.
- g) At times some matters are double discussed in committee and on the floor of Presbytery. I do not know the way around this except to say to Chairmen that if the committee is going to be consumed on an issue, then perhaps it should be brought to the floor of the Presbytery as a whole. The Moderator can then assume responsibility for the time devoted to a matter.
- h) Extra time would not need to be devoted to Presbytery because, though the 3 standing committees have more duties, instead of 6 committees reporting to the floor of Presbytery, only 3 will, but with the same matters the 6 would have.
- i) Make Presbytery's docket simpler. [i.e. remove roll call as we have sign up sheets]
- j) The Executive Committee of Presbytery would not be affected, except that if a chairman cannot be present then have a provision for the vice-chair of the committees to fill his spot.

Respectfully

Kevin Carter [Chair], Brian Murray and Rudy deVries

APPENDIX 2 (April/12)

Memorial For Doctrinal Commitments Questionnaire For the Committee on Nominations

Whereas it has been of concern that the present guidelines contained in the description of belief and adherence to the basic doctrines of evangelical Christianity for the evaluation of nominees for all the boards and committees of Synod are helpful but substantially limited in ascertaining the broader scope of doctrinal beliefs of potential nominees in relation to those of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church, the Canada Presbytery hereby memorializes Synod to:

- (1) Instruct the Committee on Nominations to have all prospective nominees additionally complete, sign and date the attached “Doctrinal Commitments Questionnaire” (See Appendix A) prior to evaluation by the Committee on Nominations.
- (2) Instruct the Committee on Nominations to include the respective answered copies of this questionnaire (by those nominees proposed by the Committee on Nominations to the General Synod) in the report of the Committee on Nominations to the General Synod, thereby allowing Synod delegates to have a more fully informed understanding of the doctrinal commitments of nominees presented prior to Synod taking action on the report of the Committee.
- (3) Encourage all those individuals, committees, and Boards who seek to make nominations from the floor of Synod to be prepared to provide a copy of this form, completed by the nominee, to the Synod as a body in order to enable an equal consideration of the nominee.

Women's Ministry Report to the Congregational Life Committee
Spring Presbytery Meeting
April 26, 2012

Hello Gentlemen. It has been my pleasure to be available to serve the churches again this past year. There are just a few things that have taken place over the last year to report.

In October I was able to 'attend' a board meeting via Skype. During this time I talked with the other Presidents and Representatives and encouraged them in working within the churches and the care of the church leaders. Though sometimes I feel like a bit of a broken record, as new ladies come on the board and in leadership positions, it seems that there is a real awareness of the proper roles of women in the church. This has been very encouraging to see and hear.

There were some changes that were made as far as retreat planning goes, last year and in September I was able to meet with the ladies from Grace in Woodstock to plan the retreat for the spring. It was such a blessing to be involved in these planning meetings and see their excitement as the details came together and were played out.

Kevin & Joanne Carter were the speakers at the retreat held on March 23 & 24. The topic came from Titus 2 on Nurturing in Grace. What a great weekend with 60 ladies in attendance from Riverside, Grace and Trinity! Kevin spoke on Friday evening and gave us an overview of the letter to Titus and the importance of order. Without order there is chaos and the church doesn't do its work properly. When there is order then we are better witnesses. He also spoke about a self righteousness that we can easily fall into and the need for grace. Grace brings humility, repentance and fruit in our lives as we seek to serve the Lord above all.

Joanne spoke to us twice on Saturday and share some insights into "Who is the older woman?" and "What does the older woman do?". The discussions that followed these sessions were very helpful in realizing that we are all the older woman and how important it is to teach the biblical principles of godliness (with grace), self control, loving husbands and children, submission and hospitality.

The ladies were all encouraged to take what they've learned back to their churches and share with those that weren't able to attend and put into practice the older teaching the younger. We are very excited to see how the Lord will use this time that was spent together to grow his church.

As the ladies came together it was wonderful to see the relationships that have grown through these events. As I was talking with some women over lunch, we discussed the value of these retreats and being able to meet with others who have similar struggles and how because we come from smaller congregations, these events are helpful in being able to meet others who have gone or are going through similar struggles and how we can encourage each other in trusting the Lord.

I look forward to working with the ladies from Riverside in Cambridge on the retreat for next year.

The Spring issue of the ARP Encouragers is also here for you to take back to your churches. Whenever I think that I don't know what I'm going to put in there, the Lord brings to my attention things that are going on in the church that we really don't deal with often. In the fall there was an article on how to encourage couples that struggle with infertility and this issue there is an article on encouraging couples who are adopting. These issues that seem to be very rare in our churches and these couples seem to fall through the cracks because they aren't the 'normal'. In the fall I hope to have an article about children with disabilities (this was asked of me at the retreat) as it is again something that we are not all aware of as far as struggles and how we can encourage each other in the body of Christ.

I'm still decided on whether or not to attend the Annual meeting at Bon Clarcken in July – but if I can't attend I hope to be able to Skype into at least one of the meetings. I hope to know in the next few weeks if that will work.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve the churches in this way.

Respectfully Submitted
Jennifer Hovestadt

APPENDIX 6 (April/12)

Ministry Report from Rudy de Vries
Prison Evangelist for the Canadian Presbytery

For the period of October 1, 2011 to March 31, 2012
Prepared for the Outreach Canada Committee of the Canadian Presbytery
April 26-27, 2012 – Cambridge, ON.

1. In Prison Ministry

- a. I've been able to have 134 out of 194 planned one on one visits with inmates at 9 different prisons
- b. Led 18 group Bible Studies at Quinte Detention Centre – average of 4 inmates per study
- c. In a new ministry opportunity that began in January I provide escort to inmates desiring to attend Sunday morning worship outside of prison at a local church. Thus far I have escorted 2 inmates to 11 Sunday services.
- d. Planned and lead 4 chapel services – approx 170 inmates total; attended and participated in 2 other chapel services
- e. The opportunity to lead Bible studies for the Christian Fellowship Group at Joyceville Institution has fallen through for now given some restructuring of programs at the prison.
- f. There is a new opportunity at Frontenac Institution for a Bible Study. I am leading a 5 week study on "Biblical Forgiveness".
- g. I am in discussions with Chaplaincy at Pittsburg Inst to provide Escort to several inmates to my office for counseling, volunteering, and fellowship.
- h. People have been asking me how the announced closing of Kingston Penitentiary and the Regional Treatment Centre will affect me. Many of the inmates will be moved to existing facilities in Ontario where new maximum security units are currently being constructed. It remains to be seen if I will have the same access to them or not.

2. Interactions with Chaplains

- a. Relationships with Chaplains continue to build. Some are thankful for my labours, while others are difficult to read. Their sentiments usually run parallel with their gospel commitments or the lack thereof.

3. Reintegration Opportunities

- a. I continue contact and ministry with a number of men who I first ministered to while in prison.
- b. Last fall we celebrated with Ron who reached the 10yr mark since his release from a total of 19 years in federal prison distributed over three virtually back to back sentences. He was a three time recidivist until the Lord did a work of grace in his heart and life during his final sentence. He faithfully attends an evangelical church in Kitchener and continues to enjoy restored relationships with this children and grandchildren.

4. Other Preaching and Ministry Opportunities

- a. I provide some leadership to the Kingston core group and its activities and services. In November we began worshipping on Sunday evenings at several homes and on April 1 we held our first monthly public service.

5. Professional Development

- a. I recently attended the Philadelphia Conference on Reformed Theology

6. Relationship with Redemption Prison Ministry Board and Staff

- a. The Board decided to change our ministry name from Cornerstone Bible Institute to Redemption Prison Ministry effective January 1, 2012.

- b. My relationship with the Board of Directors is good.
- c. I enjoyed hosting two board members in Kingston in January.
- d. Relationships with fellow staff are good as well.

7. Involvement in the Canadian Presbytery and Synod

- a. Continue involvement with Outreach Canada and its sub-committee focusing on the Kingston plant
- b. Provided input to Jennifer Hovestadt and her work for the Women's Ministry
- c. Serve on the Interchurch Relations Committee of Synod

8. Assessment of Workload

- a. My workload has been increasing since I am on-site in Kingston now. I continue to have new ministry opportunities.
- b. My assessment of my workload is that, though I am busier, there is a helpful and healthy routine taking shape from week to week. I find it manageable and enjoyable.

9. Joys and Struggles of Ministry

- a. Joys
 - i. The privilege of ministering to men who are searching for answers
 - ii. To see men growing in grace and knowledge of Jesus Christ
 - iii. My family's indispensable love and support
 - iv. It is a joy to pick up men from prison and take them to church with me
 - v. I thoroughly enjoy the weekly Bible study at the Quinte Detention Centre and the new study on "Forgiveness" at Frontenac Institution.
- b. Struggles
 - i. I can become cynical sometimes towards inmates. This affects my level of compassion and love for them.

10. Prayer Requests

- a. Pray for more opportunities to preach the glorious gospel of Christ.
- b. That I would keep Christ and his work central in my message and ministry.
- c. Pray for the Lord's direction regarding the new opportunity at Frontenac Inst and for an open door for Bible Study at Joyceville Inst.
- d. Pray for safety as I visit the prisons.
- e. Pray for lifers – some of whom get very discouraged due to seemingly no hope for release. One of the budgetary cutbacks going forward in CSC is that an organization called "Lifeline" is losing funding for its work with lifers.
- f. Pray for Ben who was released last year and is now facing new charges from a family member which are false

APPENDIX 7 (April/12)

Kingston Church Plant Report
For the Outreach Canada Committee of the Canadian Presbytery
April 26, 2012

Dear Brothers,

With gratitude to God we bring this report of what the Lord is doing in Kingston.

Much has happened since last October. In November the core group (two families) began to worship together in one another's homes each Lord's Day evening. Every service consists of scripture reading, singing, prayer, and listening to an online or downloaded sermon and is followed by a fellowship time.

In January a small Reformed family and a Reformed single began to worship with us and have continued to date. Both households are in Kingston for education purposes and will be leaving us later this summer.

In February the core group with some assistance from members of Riverside distributed 500 invitations to a Christianity Explored course. A number of conversations were had at people's doors as we invited them to explore Christianity by attending an eight week course. After the distribution was complete we had a sweet time of prayer, a potluck meal and fellowship. Though somewhat discouraged that no one contacted us as a result, we were grateful to be used by the Lord to invite people to consider learning about Jesus. Only God knows the true results. It is our desire to offer it again this fall in a very needy neighborhood near the downtown.

On April 1st a total of twenty-five people gathered for our first public worship service held at the local Lion's Hall. We were blessed to have Rev. Brian Murray lead that service where he preached on "Jesus' Encouragement to a Fledgling Ministry" from Jesus' words to his disciples in Luke 9. We were also encouraged to have elder Greig Park join us. Everyone stayed for a lunch, fellowship, sermon discussion, and a prayer time. We are now looking forward to our second public service on April 29 where Rudy de Vries will be leading the service.

Outreach Canada is helping us plan one service per month at this point. We are so grateful for the OC sub-committee consisting of Henry Bartsch, Greig Park, John Rood and Rudy de Vries which has assisted us with arranging pulpit supply and is helping to locate a church planter for this work.

We are looking forward to having URC candidate Iwan Baumann preach for us on June 10. He is a graduate of Westminster Seminary in California and is currently serving a six month internship at the URC in Thunder Bay. Preliminarily he has indicated that he would consider church planting in the ARP, i.e. he is not set exclusively on URC ministry.

Looking further ahead, we will lose most of our core group this year. The Highfill family is moving back to the US in late June. The small family and the single are moving on as well no later than late August.

However, the Lord is encouraging us with the following new contacts:

- A young Reformed couple which lives in Kingston, one of whom attended our first service. They are formerly RPCNA but now attending Bath Road Baptist Church.
- A young Reformed man from QU with two more years of law school who has attended several times has indicated his desire to join us again when he returns in the fall. He is a member of a URC.
- Another young Reformed man who has contacted us and plans to move to Kingston in August for three years at QU law school. He is a member of the FRCNA.
- We just had another inquiry this week of someone moving to Kingston in the near future and looking for a Reformed Church.
- And of course, the de Vries family is staying put in Kingston.

We ask that you join us in prayer for the following:

1. Please continue to pray for our small group, that we would not grow discouraged when we lose many of our folks this year. Pray for gospel opportunities, for regular prayer, for God-glorifying worship and fellowship.
2. Pray for the Lord to be at work moving a few Reformed families to Kingston to strengthen our witness and fellowship.
3. Pray for the Lord to give us direction regarding a downtown witness.
4. Pray that the Lord would provide the man of his choosing to be the church planter here in this needy city.

We thank-you for your leadership, support, and prayers for this work.

In Christ,

Rudy de Vries
