Thursday – September 26, 2013

The delegates for presbytery gathered for a time of Christian fellowship, refreshments and prayer prior to the beginning of the 2013 Stated Fall Meeting of the Canadian Presbytery. It is by God's grace and under His blessing that we gather as a court of His church. We give praise to God from whom all blessings flow.

3. Book of Discipline Revision

A draft version of a revised Book of Discipline has been distributed for study and suggestions for changes. It is hopeful that a draft for a revised Book of Discipline can be presented to the General Synod in the future for their approval and then sent back to the presbyteries and sessions for their deliberations and vote.

4. Other Synod Motions

Several motions were passed at General Synod that affect the presbyteries. The following are the motions that affect the Canadian Presbytery and should be highlighted.

- a) That the General Synod of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church encourage each presbytery and congregation of the denomination (a) to participate in an annual Day of Prayer against Oppression, (b) to encourage other Christian congregations and denominations to join with our congregations in the same private and/or public undertaking, (c) to set September 11 as that annual day, (d) to mark that day in the Plan Book, and (e) to instruct Outreach North America to send a timely reminder to each presbytery and to include it in their publications as appropriate.

(See Appendix 1)

5. Report on the OPC Presbytery of Michigan and Ontario Meeting

Dr. Bill VanDoodewaard brought fraternal greetings from our presbytery to the Michigan and Ontario Presbytery of the OPC on September 21, 2013. He reported on the following points:

- Examination of two men towards eligibility for call; two student sermons preached; two students interviewed to come under care, all were accepted.
 - Prospective exploratory mission works: Merritsburg, Indiana; Fort Wayne, Indiana; Windsor, Ontario.
 - Debate/discussion over whether non-ordained individuals may lead in prayer, read Scripture in worship services. There was a request from one congregation regarding families reading Scripture, couples in worship, "Tenebrae" services. Their Form of Government states the following: "ordinarily must be ordained minister". There was an inconclusive discussion and no motions were made.

APPENDIX 4 (September/13)

Ministry Report from Rudy de Vries
Prison Evangelist for the Canadian Presbytery

For the period of April 1, 2013 to August 31, 2013
Prepared for the Canadian Presbytery meeting September 26-27, 2013 in Halifax, NS.

Dear Brothers of the Canadian Presbytery,

I am very thankful to the Lord to report that he has enabled me to return to full-time labours in the prisons after a time of sickness and recovery. I continue to enjoy stable health with no evident symptoms of low blood platelets. I have my platelet levels checked quarterly and they have continued at healthy, though not optimal levels.

Last November I began an incremental return to work. Starting this past April I have returned to full-time labours.

I rejoice in the Lord's goodness to my family and me. Thank you for your prayers and encouragement. I am happy to bring the following details regarding the last five full months of ministry labours:

1. In Prison Ministry

- a. I've been able to have 85 one on one visits with inmates at 6 different prisons
- b. Led seventeen group Bible Studies at Quinte Detention Centre – average of five inmates per study
- c. I have continued to escort four men to church every Sunday.
- d. Planned and lead five chapel services – approximately 190 inmates total
- e. I've provided bi-weekly escorts for an inmate to visit my office for counseling and fellowship. I also escorted him twice to his family in Hamilton – the first time to visit his dying mother in the hospital and the second time to attend the funeral home visitation two months later. This was a new opportunity to minister to an inmate's extended family.
- f. I've had the privilege of providing on-site prison ministry training for RPM's newly hired prison pastor, Rev. Marty Slingerland. Marty's addition to RPM has been an answered prayer for more prison pastors to serve in Canadian prisons.
- g. Kingston Penitentiary is closing for good on Monday, September 30 in keeping with the government's decision to close it. It is Canada's oldest prison built in 1835. The inmate population has been redistributed to the other Kingston prisons and some have been transferred to other regions in Canada.

2. Interactions with Chaplains

- a. There has been a bit of a "shake up" among CSC Chaplaincy this year. In April it was announced that CSC was seeking a private corporation to hold Chaplaincy contracts. This took effect in September and some Chaplain's contracts were not renewed and new ones were hired. In addition to this, most Chaplains experienced a significant pay decrease. There is a lot of unhappiness and I am concerned that to some degree it may affect my ministry. On account of that, I'm kind of expecting a bit of "work slow down" from some Chaplains. I am fairly certain that this is already the case at one prison.
- b. Relationships with Chaplains continue to build and I generally experience good cooperation from them in my pursuit of ministry to RPM contacts and others.

3. Reintegration Opportunities

- a. I continue contact and ministry with seven men who I first ministered to while in prison.
- b. Had the delightful experience of a brief visit from a former inmate released six or seven years ago. He is doing well with his family and involved in an evangelical church in Whitby.

- c. My family enjoyed a long weekend visit from Ron who was released twelve years ago after serving a total of 19 years in federal prison in three back to back sentences. He is doing well, still working fulltime and he faithfully attends an evangelical church in Kitchener.

4. Other Preaching and Ministry Opportunities

- a. I have had no other significant ministry opportunities outside of RPM.

5. Professional Development

- a. I have not pursued any formal PD during this period.

6. Relationship with Redemption Prison Ministry Board and Staff

- a. My relationship with the Board of Directors is good.
- b. Relationships with fellow staff are good as well.

7. Involvement in the Canadian Presbytery and Synod

- a. Continue involvement with Outreach Canada and in particular its work regarding the Kingston plant
- b. Continue to serve as liaison for Jennifer Hovestadt and her work for the Women's Ministry
- c. Serve on the Interchurch Relations Committee of Synod

8. Assessment of Workload

- a. Since my ITP diagnosis (which has a stress connection) in May/2012 and during my return to fulltime labours I have consciously gauged my workload and the levels and effects of work related stress. Since ITP is "for life" I need to be careful with stress and workload. Thus far it is going well. I have taken tangible steps to limit stress as well as my workload.

9. Joys and Struggles of Ministry

- a. Joys
 - i. Grateful to the Lord for returning me to stable health.
 - ii. The strength given by the Lord enabling me to return to fulltime ministry
 - iii. Thankful for a colleague now involved in fulltime prison ministry
 - iv. It is a joy and privilege to preach for inmates
 - v. I particularly enjoy the small weekly group gathering at the Quinte Detention Centre
 - vi. Thankful to the Lord for sending more inmate contacts to me for the sake of the gospel
- b. Struggles
 - i. The disappointment of released inmates not keeping in contact as they have promised

10. Prayer Requests

- a. Praise the Lord for his kindness in giving me stable health and ability to resume my ministry. Pray for continued healing and strength.
- b. Give thanks for Darin who reconnected with me and is doing well spiritually.
- c. Pray for T who is still resisting the call of the gospel. Thankfully he is keeping in touch while he is out on bail.
- d. For the five men that I take to church on Sunday – that the Lord would be at work in their hearts.
- e. For men leaving prison with a Christian profession, that the Lord would bring them to a faithful church.
- f. For more opportunities to preach the glorious gospel of Christ.
- g. For the men who attend church with me – that the Lord would be at work in their hearts
- h. Pray for the prison Chaplaincy issue – that the Lord would keep the doors open for gospel ministry

Pray for access to Millhaven Institution where it has been very difficult to get in over the years but now there is a change in Chaplaincy with a Chaplain who I know well taking on the work there beginning October 1.
