In matters of unfinished business, the Report of the Ad Hoc Committee on Securing Church Finances was presented and RECEIVED AS INFORMATION as follows:

REPORT OF THE AD HOC COMMITTEE ON SECURING CHURCH FINANCES

This Committee was tasked with making suggestions for church treasures and deacons about ways to avoid church embezzlement and theft. The Committee was comprised of Mr. Buddy Lever, Treasurer of Catawba Presbytery, Mr. Charles Montgomery, CPA with the firm Montgomery and Yarborough, and the chairman, Bill Fleming.

The Problem

The Committee wishes to commend to the churches the following statistics:

- According to missiologist David Barrett, the Church of Jesus Christ lost 16 billion dollars in a single year (2000) to embezzlement, with 75 billion dollars lost between 1980 and 2000. That is more than the combined expenditures of all churches on foreign missions during the same period.
- Eighty percent of church thefts go unreported and uncaught.
- Church embezzlers are rarely intentional criminals. They have included treasurers, elders, deacons, pastors, secretaries, bishops, and even denominational leaders. The typical church embezzler has stolen for 5-10 years before being caught. They are generally assumed to be beyond reproach by those around them. Most are in their fifties or sixties when they are caught. Churches would be advised to set up financial accountability procedures that would keep temptation far from those who handle the church's property or finances.

The Signs

First, it is important to recognize signs that might be red flags that embezzling may be occurring. They include.

- Unusual drop in church revenue
- Disorganized records
- Unexplained non-payment of bills
- Missing documentation for expenses

- Missing donations
- An employee rewriting records for the sake of "neatness"
- An employee refusing to take vacations and working excessive overtime
- An employee or volunteer who is unwilling to allow examination of records by other church leaders.

Preventative Measures

These signs in themselves do not constitute proof of embezzlement. But they may indicate the possibility of embezzlement occurring.

Here are some steps that a local church may take which can help prevent embezzlement.

1. Insist that church financial officers meet the Biblical requirements of church officers set down in 1 Timothy 3:1-10, especially verses 2-4 which requires overseers be “above reproach, the husband of but one wife, temperate, self-controlled, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not given to drunkenness, not violent but gentle, not quarrelsome, not a lover of money. He must manage his own family well “
2. Make sure that more than one person is present to count offerings, and that someone else be responsible for depositing cash.
3. Require two signatures on all church checks.
4. Make sure that the person who signs the checks is different from the one who balances the checkbook.
5. Have the treasurer give financial reports which include the number, amount, and payee for all checks.
6. Use church financial software such as Power Church so there will be electronic records of all transactions, including the printing of electronic checks. Some churches have even used Quick Books or another generic financial management program
7. Insist on annual or semi-annual examination of the books by an impartial third party. This is not a recommendation for a formal church audit. A formal audit may cost between three and ten thousand dollars, which is beyond the budget of most churches, and focuses on proper accounting techniques, not on catching theft. An informal audit by a person familiar with accounting and church finances may be a better choice for most churches.
8. Have a church finance committee comprised of the treasurer, the diaconate chairman, and at least one member familiar with financial accounting. This committee would be responsible for regularly inquiring about church finances for those accountable for managing accounts and writing checks. All accounts should be open to the finance committee.
9. Have church treasurers bonded against loss.
10. Keep under lock and key an inventory of church property, including serial numbers for all electronic equipment.

Members of the committee Buddy Lever and Charles Montgomery wish it to be known that they are willing to assist any church which wishes advisement and assistance setting up proper safeguards. Each has had experience with their own church, and with other churches as well.

The Resources

Additionally, here is a list of recommended resources for churches seeking to secure their finances against theft.

- The National Association of Church Business Administration. NACBA offers ongoing certification that covers a variety of subjects, including church financial management. This has published a book, "Weeds in the Garden," about preventing fraud the Body of Christ.
- The Evangelical Council for Financial Accountability. The ECFA website is a valuable resource for good financial practices. The ECFA also publishes a quarterly newsletter, Focus on Accountability.
- Secure Your Church Finances, an electronic training resource from ChurchSafety.com. They offer a free online assessment that will help a church determine whether their money is at risk.
- Safe Ways to Handle Your Church's Money, an electronic training resource from ChurchSafety.com.
- Church Finance Today, a monthly newsletter written by Richard Hammar. This periodical covers key financial and tax developments that church leaders should know.
- Essential Guide to Church Finances (Christianity Today International, 2009), co-written by Richard Vargo and Vonna Laue. This book explains how to plan and budget, how to set performance measurements, how to create church financial reports, how to conduct church audits, and how to minimize the risk for embezzlement.

This report is submitted as information. It is not intended to be in any way binding upon churches within the Presbytery, but simply a tool to use in securing a church's finances.

Respectfully Submitted
Bill Fleming, Chairman

The report of the Stated Clerk/Administrator was presented and ADOPTED as follows:

REPORT OF THE STATED CLERK/ADMINSTRATOR

Information:

At the direction of the Chairman of the Commission an endorsement was signed by the Clerk approving the application of Jonathan R. Williams, a licentiate in our Presbytery, for possible service as an Army Chaplain.

As instructed by Presbytery a letter was sent to all church concerning Clergy Compensation Procedures to serve as guidelines for churches concerning salaries of those serving under the terms of a call. [APPENDIX B]

Executive Committee:

As Clerk, I received a request a Listing Agreement for the IBL Property. Since Presbytery has not approved my signing this paper, the Executive Committee voted to consider in as an urgent matter under the provision of our Rules of Procedure. The Executive Committee gave its unanimous approval for the Stated Clerk to sign the document in behalf of Presbytery since the document only determines if there is any interest in the property.

The Executive Committee was of the opinion that a final sale on the property will need to be the prerogative of the Presbytery and will take a Presbytery action to complete the sale. By signing the Listing Agreement, the Executive Committee believes we are not obligating the Presbytery in a financial way but simply preparing the way for a possible future sale. The Outreach Committee was informed of this opinion.

Correspondence:

A letter was received from the Pleasant Hill congregation stating: "The congregation of the Pleasant Hill Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church at its annual business meeting on January 16, 2011 adopted the following motion: "That the congregation petition Catawba Presbytery to exercise its authority and dissolve this congregation."

This letter is the formal request for Catawba Presbytery to exercise its authority in this matter."

Signed: Mitchell Faulkenberry, Clerk of Session

The Moderator of Presbytery appointed an ad hoc committee to work out the details of this request. The Ad Hoc Committee consists of the Trustees of Presbytery: J. Steve Maloney, Chairman, Guy H. Smith, Stated Clerk/Administrator, T. C. S. Lever, Treasurer along with former Moderator W. T. Clary and C. Ronald Beard, Principal Clerk of Synod. The Committee will report at the March meeting of Presbytery.

Annual Reports:

Reports from the various churches were received and compiled. The Salary Review report was forwarded to the Commission for review and recommendation. The Congregational information was referred to the State of the Church for their study and recommendations.

Recommendations:

1. That the report be received as information and printed in the Minutes.
2. That the action of the Executive Committee be sustained.
3. That the compilation of the reports be approved and forwarded to the General Synod.

[APPENDIX C]

Respectfully,
Guy H Smith, Stated Clerk/Administrator

The report of the Ad Hoc Committee on Pleasant Hill was presented and ADOPTED as follows:

REPORT OF THE MODERATOR'S AD HOC COMMITTEE ON PLEASANT HILL

The Committee met with the Moderator of the Pleasant Hill Session, Dwight Pearson and the Pleasant Hill Session, Mitchell Faulkenberry and Oscar Ray Rutledge. The meeting was in response to the letter from the Pleasant Hill congregation requesting that the Presbytery "exercise its authority and dissolve this congregation." The Committee appreciates the openness, the sincerity and the compassion of the Session members as they discussed the situation at Pleasant Hill.

The Pleasant Hill Church has been a viable, active congregation in Catawba Presbytery since its organization in 1899. The members have always been active in and supportive of the Presbytery, the Synod and its agencies not only financially but also in the giving of time and talent to serve. Sadly, however, the Session members reported that the demographics of the area around Pleasant Hill have been changing for a number of years and the congregation has slowly dwindled in size. Presently only 11 are able to attend services on a regular basis and they continue to lose older members. The matter of closing has been evident to them for some time. The congregation did consider closing over a year ago and decided to wait another year and see if circumstances changed. No change has been evident and as a result the congregation has expressed its desire to close the Church even though it is a very painful decision. They have requested that the Presbytery act to close the Church and to do so in such a way that it can be an orderly closing. While there were 4 negative votes to closing, the Session informed the Committee these four simply could not bring themselves to vote to close even though they believe it is in the best interest of the Church. There is no other property involved other than the sanctuary and education building.

The Committee sympathizes with the Session and Pleasant Hill congregation at this very difficult decision and agrees with them that it should be done in an orderly manner.

We therefore recommend the following:

1. That the closing date be November 6, 2011 according to the wishes of the Session and congregation or sooner should circumstances require.
2. That the Executive Committee be empowered to act on behalf of Presbytery in the event of a possible sale or lease between the meetings of Presbytery.
3. That Catawba Presbytery continue to work to keep the wishes and best interest of Pleasant Hill Congregation and Session in mind.
4. That this Committee be designated to continue working with the Session and Pleasant Hill congregation through this process.
5. That the members of Presbytery continue to pray for the Session and the Pleasant Hill congregation as they move through this process.
6. That this Committee continue to report to the Presbytery as needed.

Respectfully,
Committee
Steve Maloney, Chairman
Guy H. Smith
T. C. S. Lever
C. Ronald Beard
W. T. Clary

Dwight L. Pearson at the request of the Moderator led the Presbytery in prayer for the Pleasant Hill Church and its members.

The Committee reported on the Cemetery Preservation Workshop on March 26th.
The report of the Committee on Outreach was presented and ADOPTED as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON OUTREACH

This Committee met on January 4 and 25, 2011, at the Bethel ARP Church in Winnsboro, SC.

On January 4 we prayed and searched for ways to help us in the months ahead. Mrs. Diaz will be doing her practice teaching through May. This eliminates her salary for this period of time and perhaps even until the next school year begins. She will be able to retain the family Health Insurance with the State of SC. Our commitment to her last year was to pay her portion of that insurance ($5,101). Financial support for Rev. J. J Diaz ended on December 31, 2010.

At the last meeting (October) Presbytery approved an emergency fund of $11,000 for 2011. This Committee has requested the Treasurer to use that funding to fill the void through March. We are facing an obvious crisis.

This Committee has made known to Presbytery on several occasions that this is not a good climate to engage in fund raising. Neither is it a good time to sell property. However, we have begun both.

At the January 4, 2011 meeting the Committee unanimously voted to secure a firm to proceed with the sale of the Gregg Street property.

At the meeting on January 25 the Committee approved a plan with two purposes:

1. Give the people of our Presbytery an opportunity to know the people of the group called IBL.
2. Use the area meetings to begin a financial campaign for the work of this Committee.

Letters were sent on January 26 to all pastors, Clerks of Sessions, Diaconate Chairmen, President of Women's Ministries and others in each church. In the letter we briefly identified IBL, the Outreach Committee and our purposes for having area meetings. (We plan to have a report from some of these meetings at this meeting of Presbytery.)

A second important matter was finalized at the January 25 meeting. The property on Gregg Street was put on the market with the commercial real estate firm of Dial, Dunlap & Edwards, LLC. Through the guidance of Mr. Cal McMeekin (an ARP) we have set an asking price of $250,000.00. The firm will have an exclusive right to represent us for 181 days. The commission will be 7% of the final sale price. This agreement has been duly approved by the Executive Committee of Presbytery and signed by Guy H. Smith, Stated Clerk/Administrator.

Our report to you contains a sad note. After over 20 years of service in this ministry, it has become necessary for the Rev. Diaz to be relieved of his pastoral status. For more than a year we have suffered with him, his family and the congregation of IBL over his gradual slipping into the inability to perform his duties as Pastor and leader of this group. Everybody who has ever known JJ loves him dearly and respects him to the highest. Disability retirement papers have been filed with the General Synod and are now being processed. We have been advised that this process normally takes some time to finalize.

RECOMMENDATIONS;

1. That pastors encourage the people under their care to respond, as they feel led by God, to provide prayer support and financial support for the work of the Committee on Outreach.
2. That all matters pertaining to the Gregg Street property become a matter of record.

3. That Presbytery re-instate the support for Rev. Diaz until such time his disability retirement becomes official.
4. That funding for the work of this Committee during 2011 be provided as follows:

Travel Expenses	$2,000.00
Promotional Materials	$2,000.00

Respectfully,
James C. Barker, Chairman

Mr. Barker spoke briefly on the work underway at IBL and the Committee and its plans.

Recommendations 1, 2 & 4 were adopted.

Recommendation 3 was tabled.

The report of the Committee on the State of the Church was presented and ADOPTED as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE STATE OF THE CHURCH

The Committee met prior to the meeting of Presbytery to review the 2010 Annual Reports and make recommendations. The reports had been distributed prior to the meeting by email for review.

The Committee notes that there are some churches in Catawba Presbytery that have not been represented consistently by ruling elders at Presbytery and Synod meetings. The Committee reminds the churches that they are entitled under the Form of Government XII, C, 2 and XIII, C, I, to have minister and elder representation at these meetings.

The Committee understands there are some congregations in the Presbytery that struggle to remain viable and are unable to be represented at Presbytery and Synod meetings. The Committee requests that Presbytery pray for renewal and revival in these churches, and to offer thanks to Almighty God for the faithful members who continue to persevere to keep them going.

The Committee also understands that there are few congregations that likely could have minister and elder representation at Presbytery and Synod meetings. These congregations are encouraged to take their privileges and duties as members of a connectional church seriously.

The Committee reminds all ministers, elders and congregations of Presbytery of their privilege and duty to support the General Synod and its agencies by prayer, participation and monetary giving.

The Committee also examined session records of churches whose names begin with the letters A-H as well as others listed in the meeting notice. When exceptions to the Rules were found during examination, these exceptions and suggestions for improvement were noted on the check list.

Recommendations:

1. That Catawba Presbytery pray for revival and renewal in her churches that struggle to remain viable, and give thanks to Almighty God for the faithful members who continue to persevere and keep going.
2. That Catawba Presbytery remind all congregations of their privilege and duty to be represented at Presbytery and Synod meetings.
3. That Catawba Presbytery remind all congregations of their privilege and duty to support the General Synod and its agencies.

4. That the following records be approved without exception: Arsenal Hill, Bethel, Bethany, Calhoun, Centennial, Clover, Ebenezer, Edgemoor, Edwards Memorial, First Columbia, Good Shepherd, Hopewell, Hickory Grove, Westminster and White Oak.
5. That the following records be approved with minor exceptions: Blacksburg, Crossings Community, Effingham, Faith, First Hardeeville, Sherwood Forest and Shiloh.
6. That the following records be brought to the Fall meeting of Presbytery for examination: Chester and Hope, LA.

Respectfully,
Mark Miller, Chairman

The report of the Committee on Church Extension was presented and discussed as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION

The Committee is encouraged by the interest in evangelism in our Presbytery. There are a number of works in progress and some new works to be proposed here.

At this time, the work of Grace Mission continues in earnest with the search for a Mission developer. This may come to fruition by the time of our next meeting. (Grace is the new work that is proceeding with the guidance of First Church, Columbia.)

We continue to have several churches in the Rock Hill area that are working together in a Parenting Church Community to plant new churches in York County. This team effort is being guided by Global Church Advancement and funded by Outreach North America. Kyle Sims has served as a catalyst for this group for the past year and a half and now guides the search for a Mission developer for the first plant in Rock Hill.

We have approved the exploration of three new fields beginning later this year. Following the successful work of other presbyteries, we have taken the decision for a resident evangelist approach for two of them.

First, we have studied and approved a resident evangelist for the York County area. The evangelist would be required to have a pastoral mentor for encouragement and accountability, and a church-planting coach for specific training in current church-planting methodology. The designated pastoral mentor for this work is Rev. Martin Taylor. This is one year exploratory work would be used to determine the feasibility and possible plan for a mission in York County, which could be presented at next year's spring meeting. This approach will only require a one-year agreement on the part of the Church Extension Committee, representing Presbytery, and the resident evangelist, which makes use of a Call as an Evangelist for Church Planting. Candidate details will be provided at the upcoming meeting.

Second, we have studied and approved a residency for San Antonio, TX metro area. The resident would be required to have a pastoral mentor/coach for encouragement and accountability, and specific training in current church-planting methodology. The designated mentor coach for this work is Rev. Jan Sattem. This one year exploratory work would be used to determine the feasibility and possible plan for a mission in San Antonio, TX, which could be presented at next year's spring meeting. This exploration will require a one-year agreement on the part of presbytery and the resident, which makes use of a Call as an Evangelist for Church Planting. Candidate details will be provided at the upcoming meeting.

Third, our Committee recommended one candidate, an A.R.P. minister, to the February Church Planter Assessment. This candidate is interested in planting a church in Dallas, TX.

Our plans for church revitalization will involve a meeting of interested churches following Ken Priddy's presentation at Gordon-Conwell in March.

Our current funds are sufficient for the works we have approved. In addition, we expect the assistance of Outreach North America in each of these works.

Finally, the Committee would like to make available the remaining inventory of assets from the work at Indian Land. If your church is interested in any of these items please contact the chairman at revmarty@me.com, or 843-997-5571. A copy of the inventory is located in APPENDIX E.

Recommendations

1. Approve the one year exploratory work, as detailed, in York County, SC.
2. Approve the one year exploratory work in San Antonio, TX.
3. Approve a one year exploratory work in Dallas, TX.
4. Request ONA funding for these works.
5. That Presbytery sustain the other actions of the Church Extension Committee

Respectfully Submitted,
Martin L. Taylor, Chairman

Mr. Taylor presented each of the candidates who plan to undertake the various works. Each gave a brief description of what would be involved.

It was noted by Mr. Taylor:

- Each call is a one year exploratory works and that anything beyond that would come back to Presbytery for approval.
- The Presbytery commitment to each work for the one year is $36,000.

Recommendation #1 was recommended and after discussion ADOPTED by a vote of 58-22.

Recommendation # 2 was ADOPTED.

Recommendation #3 was ADOPTED.

Recommendation # 4 was ADOPTED.

Recommendation # 5 was ADOPTED.

Guy H. Smith offered a motion that was ADOPTED as follows:

"I move that the Moderator appoint a Committee of 5-7 members consisting of teaching ruling elders, two of whom shall be from churches whose active membership is less than fifty, one of whom shall be a member of the Committee on Church Extension, and the remaining members being at large members. The purpose of the Committee shall be:

1. To study the role of the Presbytery with regard to assisting churches with declining membership;
2. To recommend to the Presbytery concrete ways, including but not limited to financial assistance, with the goal that Presbytery may assist smaller churches in securing leadership that will enable them to continue as a viable ministry.

It is further recommended that this special Committee report its findings and recommendations to the Presbytery not later than the October meeting of the Presbytery."

Presbytery recessed for lunch at 12:15 p.m. The blessing for the meal was given by the host pastor, James D. McLurkin.

Presbytery reconvened at 1:15 p.m.

Recommendation #3 from the Outreach Committee that was placed on the table was removed for discussion.

Recommendation #3 was ADOPTED as follows: That Presbytery provide a monthly gift of $2,800 to Blanca Diaz for 2011 or until such time as Rev. Diaz is approved as medically disabled for LTD benefits by Assurant or through Social Security and that the funds come from the sale of the Carolina Covenant Property.

APPENDIX B

CLERGY COMPENSATION PROCEDURES October 26, 2010

The Form of Government states: "...Calls shall provide for an annual review of the terms of the call...." [FOG X, E, 11, page 215]

The Form of Government further states that the Presbytery has power: "To examine and approval calls and changes in the terms of calls." [FOG, XII, B, I, page 226], [FOG, X, E, 20, page 217]

The review of the call is normally conducted prior to the adoption of the yearly budget by the congregation. [FOG, II, H, 1], [FOG, X, E, 20, page 217]

After review the congregation may decide to provide an increase to the minister's salary: "...Review with you annually the adequacy of this compensation. As part of the review the congregation is encouraged to consider giving an increase to the previous year's base compensation." [Catawba Presbytery Rules of Procedure, IX, Section 10, APPENDIX A, Section 2, b), page 38]

INCREASING BASIC COMPENSATION

The procedure for providing an increase in basic compensation is as follows:

1. The increase may be proposed by the local finance committee, the Board of Deacons or Session as part of the local budget process.
2. The proposal for increase is presented to the congregation as part of the adoption of the congregation budget for the next year. [FOG, II, H, 1]
3. The increase is reported to the Presbytery as part of the annual Report to the Presbytery prepared by the Session.
4. The Commission on the Minister and His Work will review the increases and make an appropriate recommendation to the Presbytery since the increase represents a change in the terms of the Call. [FOG, XII, B, I, page 226]

LOWERING BASIC COMPENSATION

The procedure for changing the terms of a call by lowering basic compensation is as follows:

1. When a congregation is no longer in a position to maintain the terms of a call and desires to reduce the basic compensation as stipulated in the Call for the Minister, and with the approval of the congregation since it involves the local budget, [FOG, II, H, 1] the Session shall consult the Commission on the Minister and His Work. [FOG, XII, B, I, page 226]
2. Since the Presbytery reviews changes in calls on a yearly bases it is desirable that decisions be made by the local congregation and presented to the Commission as early as possible before the end of the year.
3. At the request of the Session, the Commission will meet with the Session to review the action relative to the change in the terms of the call.
4. The Commission may require from the Session documentation that the congregation is no longer able to maintain the terms of a call. The documentation may be similar to that required for a call to be made to a Bi-vocation minister or an Evangelist. [Rules of Procedure, F, Appendix G, page 48]
5. When the Commission has reviewed the documentation provided by the Session, the Commission on the Minister and His Work will make an appropriate recommendation to the Presbytery whether or not to approve the change in the terms of the call.
6. Once the Presbytery acts on the recommendation of the Commission the approved changes to the terms of the call may be enacted.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF CATAWBA WOMEN'S MINISTRIES

Gentlemen, thank you for allowing me to speak with you today. I bring you greetings from the board of Catawba Women's Ministries.

A couple of years ago I was speaking with a friend about ministry. Her church, a fairly young church in upstate New York, was in its beginning stages of women's ministry and was seeking to define what women's ministry actually was. What it looked like. The question before them was this: "is women's ministry a ministry to women or ministry of women?" So she put the question to me. My answer to her was, "Yes." I went on to explain my answer, "Women's ministry is both ministry to women and ministry of women."

Women's ministry is first ministry to women. Titus 2:3-5 tells us that older women are to be godly examples to younger women and to train them so "that the word of God may not be reviled." Colossians 3 tells us, "Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly, teaching and admonishing one another in all wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God." Our first goal therefore is to minister to women, teaching and training them so that they may grow in Christ and to develop the gifts that each of us are given by the Spirit.

Ministry to women, then, seems straightforward. But is that all there is to it? Certainly not! For the second arm of women's ministry is ministry of women. All of us as Christians, men and women alike, have been given spiritual gifts that we are to use to build up the body of Christ and to expand his kingdom. Women's ministries help women to plug into the body wherever their gifts may best be used.

But what are the aspects of this arm of women's ministry? The first is teaching. I have already talked about the importance of teaching other women. This takes form in our churches in women's Sunday School classes, weekly Bible studies, monthly circles, one-on-one discipling, and various conferences, such as the Prayer Emphasis conference at churches. Teaching and training do not stop in our churches. It continues on the Presbyterial and Synodical levels. Last year we began a new outreach to our church women's ministry officers called "Meet and Greet." These meetings are a time of training from ministers and teachers, a time of encouragement, a time for sharing ideas, and a time for prayer. In addition, the Catawba and ARP Women's Ministries Annual Meetings and the Family Bible Conference each summer at Bonclarken afford further opportunities to grow in the knowledge of God's Word. And may I say personally what a blessing it was for me to sit under the teaching of the Rev. Joe Novenson last year at the Family Bible Conference as he began to build the foundation for our studies in Hebrews this year. Even as I taught last month at my circle I recalled and shared some of the teaching he provided that week.

Another aspect of women's ministry is teaching in our homes and in the church, specifically in children's ministry. In Deuteronomy 6:7 God told the Israelites to be diligent in teaching their children the words that he had commanded them. Proverbs 22:6 says, "Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it." We turn to the

New Testament and look in 2 Timothy 1:5, where Paul speaks of the sincere faith that Timothy's mother, Eunice and his grandmother, Lois, had and passed down to him.

Sometimes when we think of women's ministries we think of luncheons, receptions, and other gatherings for times of fellowship. The practice of hospitality is an important aspect of women's ministries in the body life of the church. Who hasn't enjoyed a reception at church? And several times, after coming home from presbytery, my husband has complimented the ladies of your churches for the excellent lunch they so graciously provided. When a family is in crisis, meals are taken to them. Circles and Bible studies often meet in homes. Ladies' luncheons provide a medium for fellowship plus an opportunity for the body to be built up by a special speaker. Luncheons and receptions also provide a place for friendship evangelism – reaching out to those who may resist attending a Bible study.

Now, you may be wondering what women's ministries have to do with you. As our pastors and elders, we sit under your authority. We need your help and leadership in being effective in our ministry to women. Do you know what the circles of your church are studying? What is being taught in the women's Bible studies? Who are the speakers at our meetings, luncheons, and conferences? I am grateful to our ministers who work with our circle Bible teachers each month, preparing them to teach the Word faithfully. Your involvement, guidance, encouragement, and prayer are of vital importance to us.

Finally, I ask that you pray for us. Pray that we would grow in our relationships with the Lord. Pray that we would use the gifts the Spirit has given us to build up the body and to expand the Lord's kingdom. Pray for our teachers, that they would "rightly handle the word of truth." Pray for those of us in leadership, that we would be guided by the Lord, and that our decisions would reflect him.

Last year, at one of our "Meet and Greet" meetings, Paul Bell of the Synod offices provided ministry training. He finished his talk to us with this challenge: "Do you want your women's ministry to leave behind a legacy of punch and cookies, or do you want to leave a legacy of love for Christ and his church?" I pray that it may always be the latter. Thank you.

Eve Huffman, President
