Changes to the Rules of Procedure placed on the docket from the March meeting were considered.

CHANGES TO THE RULES OF PROCEDURE

Changes to the Rules of Procedure placed on the docket from the March Meeting are as follows:

1. Presbytery accepted The Procedure to Dissolve a Congregation presented at the last March meeting. A motion was made as follows: "That the Procedure for Dissolving a Congregation be added to the Rules of Procedure as policy Article XI and the current Articles XI and XII be re-numbered."

Change number 1 was ADOPTED.

2. Change E: State of the Church, Section 1, amending e) by adding: "The Committee may also initiate contact with a church that obviously needs help."

Change number 2 was ADOPTED.

The report of the Judicial Commission appointed to act in behalf of Presbytery was presented and RECEIVED AS INFORMATION as follows:

REPORT OF THE JUDICIAL COMMISSION

The Commission on the Minister and his Work reported to the Presbytery at the October 11, 2011 Stated Meeting:

"A member of Presbytery has contacted the Commission concerning his actions over a long period of time. The member of Presbytery has confessed his actions, is repentant of those actions, is presently in counseling, and seeks forgiveness and reconciliation. The charge against him is the breaking of ordination vow number 6: "Do you sincerely resolve to fulfill all your responsibilities in your home life and in all your relations with your fellowman, following after righteousness, faith, and love?" (Form of Government, Chapter X, D. 2. g 6. p.212).

From the Book of Discipline we learn, "The basis of all church discipline is the free love of God in Christ expressed in both mercy and judgment. The purpose of discipline is to bring the reconciliation of man to God and man to man and to engage the people of God in the ministry of reconciliation, and to promote the peace, purity, and edification of the Church.”

Few people know of the offense. The Book of Discipline, Chapter 5, A, 7 states, “Before proceeding with any judicial process, the court, or a committee appointed by the court, should seek by private conference with the accused to avoid, if possible, the need for actual judicial process.” Also Chapter 5, A, 8 states, “If the offender confesses, the way is clear for the court either to restore him or to impose such censure as the welfare of the offender and /or the Church may require.”

The Commission feels that the proper way of handling the charge against the brother is by private means. We believe that it would be best for the Church, Presbytery, and the brother’s family if this is done by the Commission” (Minutes 2011-12 volume I, Page 30, Stated Meeting, October 11, 2011, Bethel ARP Church).

During the October 11 meeting of Presbytery, the following recommendation with respect to the report above was approved: “Recommendation 9. That the Commission on the Minister and his Work be elected as a Judicial Commission, to act on behalf of Presbytery in a Judicial Case against a member of Presbytery, in order for it to be handled privately” (Minutes 2011-12 volume I, Page 30, Stated Meeting, October 11, 2011, Bethel ARP Church).

Since the Fall Meeting of Presbytery, the Commission has labored for reconciliation in the member’s marriage. We have met with him and his wife, prayed for them, and remained in contact with this member of Presbytery on about a weekly basis through the Chairman. The disposition of the Judicial Commission was to do all we could to support this member of Presbytery and his wife in the process of your re-establishing the covenant of their marriage.

At the Stated Spring Meeting, March 12, 2012 at the Centennial ARP Church, The Judicial Commission reported: “The Commission has met twice with this member of Presbytery and has made a careful and thorough investigation into his breaking ordination vow 6. The Commission has maintained communication with this member on almost a weekly basis. The member has continued to repent of his sin and is seeking to make appropriate restitution and reconciliation with the parties involved. The member and his wife are receiving regular biblical counseling. The Commission has sought to provide appropriate support to the member’s wife. The Commission has issued a temporary suspension to this member of Presbytery which disallows the practice of any of the duties associated with the office of Minister. The Commission plans to continue working with this member of Presbytery and will report to Presbytery action and progress related to this judicial case.”

The Judicial Commission sent written notice to this member of Presbytery to meet with the Judicial Commission on March 1. He indicated he would meet with us, but failed to show. He called a few minutes prior to the meeting and said he would send an email explaining why he was not meeting with us. The email revealed his plan to intentionally disregard his covenant in marriage through adultery and abandonment of his wife and marriage. These actions gave grave concern to the Judicial Commission.

While the goal of church discipline is restorative and not punitive, we learn in the Scriptures that there are consequences to our sin(s). Moreover, a lack of repentance curtails restoration.

The Judicial Commission sent written notice dated April 19 to meet with this member of Presbytery on Thursday, April 26 for a Judicial Trial. The Judicial Commission of Catawba Presbytery met Thursday, April 26 to convene a judicial trial with respect to the items which Presbytery charged us to investigate and handle as a Judicial Commission on Presbytery’s behalf.

Again this member of Presbytery failed to show at the trial. In his absence, the Judicial Commission appointed one of its members to serve as Counsel to ensure that each step of the ARP Book of Discipline was followed to confirm a just and properly ordered procedure.

The charges against this member of Presbytery were twofold: the breaking of ordination vow number 6 (as outlined above), and failure to keep the vows of the covenant of marriage.

After a careful review of the facts of the case and investigation process, the Judicial Commission examined the evidence presented including the member's own testimony of wrong doing. The Judicial Commission acting on behalf of Presbytery in its full authority by a unanimous vote found this member, John H. Hopkins, guilty of both charges.

This member in an email dated, March 1, 2012, requested to be removed from the roll of Presbytery. The Judicial Commission again acting on behalf of Presbytery by a unanimous vote made the following decisions: (1) That John H. Hopkins is Deposed from the Office of a Minister of the Gospel; (2) That he is Removed from the Roll of Catawba Presbytery with Censure; (3). That his Ordination is Revoked, and (4) That he is Suspended from the Lord's Table.

The Judicial Commission takes no pleasure in the actions that the decisions of Mr. Hopkins have required us to make. We grieve over his sin and continue to pray for him and his relationship with the Lord. Moreover, we also are praying for his family and desire that he repent and his marriage be restored according to God's purpose. The Commission has maintained appropriate contact with his wife.

A certified letter was mailed to Mr. Hopkins dated April 30, 2012 explaining the decisions of the Judicial Commission and the reminder of a two week period of appeal of this verdict and resulting status with the Presbytery to the next higher court. The signature of the return receipt of the reception of the letter by Mr. Hopkins was dated Friday, May 4, 2012. The two week period of appeal terminated Saturday, May 19, 2012. The Principal Clerk of Synod and the Stated Clerk of our Presbytery were consulted and no appeal was received by the deadline.

Recommendations:

1. That this report be received by Presbytery and printed in the minutes.
2. That the Presbytery remember this situation in prayer and that the Judicial Commission be dissolved.

Respectfully Submitted,
David H. Lauten, Chairman
Chairman of the Catawba Presbytery Judicial Commission

Frank van Dalen offered prayer for Mr. Hopkins and his family. The Commission was dissolved.
