- 2015 Spiritual Life Conference – The conference was held on September 20th, 2015 at 1st ARP in Rock Hill. Hank Hanegraaf, president of the Christian Research Institute and host of the radio program The Bible Answer Man, was the speaker for the evening who spoke on the history and beliefs of Islam, coupled with an apologetic/evangelism emphasis. The main session was followed by a dinner (McAllister’s) which was followed-up with a Q&A session with Hanegraaf. Judi Hodges (CEM), along with representatives from the Christian Research Institute were on hand to offer a number of books and multimedia items for sale. We had 82 persons in attendance.

Reports of planned events:

- 2016 High School SPRING retreat (Mar 4-6): Retreat theme will be “Missions.” Alex Pettett (executive director, World Witness) will be the speaker and Thomas Henderson will lead the music in worship. First and Second Presbyteries will be participating as well.
- 2016 Middle School SPRING retreat (Mar 11-13): Keynote speaker and theme are yet to be determined. A praise team from 1st Columbia & Erskine will lead the music in worship.
- 2016 Children’s Retreat (November at Neely’s Creek ARP): The exact date and details are a work in progress.
- 2016 Spiritual Life Conference: date and details are a work in progress.

Other Actions:

- We discussed how we could better co-ordinate efforts with CEM in planning, promoting, and carrying conferences relating to Christian Education.
- We communicated with RUF ministers from Clemson, USC, Furman, Winthrop, College of Charleston, and Erskine seeking their advice on how congregations may assist their college-aged members to get involved with campus ministries where they attend. We received responses from all ministers with the exception of USC and Clemson. Their responses were reviewed and discussed at the meeting, but no concrete recommendations emerged. The committee decided it would be best to continue discussions with plans to make recommendations to the presbytery by the October 10th, 2016 meeting.

Recommendations:

1. That the report be received as information.
2. That the plans for the upcoming presbytery retreats/conferences be approved.
3. That the Committee be allowed to continue its study of ministry to college-aged members and report back on the October 10th meeting of presbytery in 2016.

Respectfully Submitted,
Charles Hammond, Chairman

The report of the Committee on Church Extension was presented and ADOPTED as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION

The Committee on Church Extension met on January 19 at Bethel ARP Church for the purpose of reviewing and praying for the work of Presbytery's work of church extension. During the meeting, the Committee received updated statistical information about Presbytery's mission congregations, heard reports from Presbytery's mission developers, received a report from ONA's Executive Director, Mike Jones, and discussed the development of a strategic plan (location and funding) for planting new churches and encouraging congregational renewal within the bounds of Presbytery.

Statistical Information

The Committee thinks it is important to keep Presbytery up-to-date with the latest statistical information regarding her mission congregations. This information has changed since the Committee's initial report was published. Those changes are reflected in the table below.

	Hill City	River Crossing	King's Parish	Shem Creek
Communicant Members	54	10	38	25
Non-Communicant Members	23	4	15	6
Attendance	70	30	60	28
Committed Adults	54	25	38	22
Approximate Monthly Giving	$4,500	$2,000	$7,500	$3,200

Church Planting Developments

Daniel Wells, mission developer for Hill City Mission, presented a request to the Committee on the behalf of the provisional session that Hill City Mission be approved for organization as a local congregation by March 31, 2016. After discussing regarding Hill City's financial sustainability and the qualifications of her elder candidates, the Committee received this recommendation with joy and unanimously voted to recommend the organization of Hill City as a local congregation to the Presbytery.

Church Revitalization

The Committee desires to make Presbytery aware that the committee is available to assist congregations with revitalization and renewal. At present, the committee has contributed $4000 to Living Waters for revitalization in 2016 and has an additional $11,000 in its 2016 budget to assist other congregations. The Committee also is willing to work with ONA to get resources into the hands of sessions and congregations who desire to undergo a revitalization process.

Recommendations:

1. That the report be received as information.
2. That Presbytery organize Hill City Mission as a local congregation.
3. That Presbytery pause for prayer on behalf of the current mission congregations and on behalf of our mission developers and their families.

Respectfully Submitted,
Clint Davis, Chairman

SUPPLEMENTAL REPORT AOF THE COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION

The Committee on Church Extension met on February 29, 2016 at Bethel ARP Church for two primary purposes. The first was to consider Rev. Matt Awtrey as a Church Planting Exploratory Intern for Irmo, SC, and the second was to consider a request from River Crossing Mission for a fourth year of funding in the amount of $40,700.

Rev. Matt Awtrey and Irmo, SC

The Committee met with Rev. Matt Awtrey about the possibility of planting an ARP Church in Irmo, SC. Matt is an ordained member of Second Presbytery and has a heart for the Irmo area. He and his wife are both from the Irmo area and would love to see a biblical, reformed and evangelistic congregation in that community. For the past 8 months, Matt has been working as a Church Planting Exploratory Intern for Second Presbytery. During this time he and his wife have sought the Lord's direction for their lives and ministry. They believe the Lord has called them to Irmo to plant a church. The Committee agrees.

The Committee recommends that Catawba Presbytery put Matt on the field in Irmo, SC to continue the exploratory work that he has already begun. The Committee further recommends that Presbytery pick up the remaining 4 months of Matt's Church Planting Exploratory Internship from Second Presbytery at a total cost of $10,000. The committee has the money in its 2016 budget in the "Additional Startup" line. Matt will use the next 3-4 months to prepare his official proposal for a church plant in Irmo, SC.

River Crossing Mission

The Committee also met with David Stover to consider a proposal from River Crossing Mission for a fourth year of funding in the amount of $40,700. The committee reviewed River Crossing's financial records and found that Presbytery has contributed $232,149 to River Crossing since August 2012. Presbytery has already contributed $22,149 more than it originally committed to the Mission. After discussing the proposal with David and reviewing the River Crossing's finances, the Committee voted to deny the request because it was not convinced that granting the request would be the best stewardship of Presbytery's resources.

Recommendations

1. That the Church Planting Exploratory Internship for Matt Awtrey be approved.
2. That the Presbytery provide $10,000 to fund the remainder of Matt Awtrey's internship.

Respectfully Submitted,
Clint H. Davis, Chairman

A motion was made and ADOPTED to amend recommendation 1 by adding the following words: "contingent upon his reception into Catawba Presbytery through the Commission on the Minister and His Work."

Mr. David offered prayer for the mission developers and their work.

The report of the Committee on Commitment and Finance was presented and ADPOTED as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON COMMITMENT AND FINANCE

The Commitment and Finance Committee reports the following:

The audit of the Treasurer's books has been completed. Under the Clerk/Administrator's report, the official letter from Mr. James R. Robertson may be found.

We also report that the following churches indicated that their treasurer's books had been reviewed by someone outside the church during 2015 or early this year: Bethel, Blacksburg, Chester, Clover, Columbia First, Crossings Community, IBL, Rogers Memorial, Edgemoor, Living Waters, Neely's Creek, Rock Hill First, Rowan, Union, & York.

Delegates are reminded that the Revised Form of Government requires that a review by an outside person be conducted no less than every three years. This provision was set in place for the protection of each congregation. This year (2016) marks the third year of this provision and by December 31 all congregational reports should indicate that their treasurer's books have been reviewed. If anyone is not certain of how to go about this review, we suggest that they contact someone from one of the above churches.

Recommendations:

1. That Mr. Lever be commended for the excellent manner in which he has kept the Treasurer's books.
2. That churches which have had their Treasurer's books reviewed be commended.
3. That this report be received as information.

Respectfully,
James D. McLurkin, Chairman

The report of the Committee on State of the Church was presented and ADOPTED as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON STATE OF THE CHURCH

The Committee met on Feb. 28 at the Bethel A.R.P. Church. With regard to the referral from the spring 2015 meeting of Catawba Presbytery asking the SOC to address the sessions that habitually do not send representatives to presbytery or synod, the Committee voted to send a letter "to the sessions of churches of Catawba Presbytery that did not have representation at either the stated meetings of Catawba Presbytery nor the meeting of General Synod during the 2015 calendar year. That letter should communicate that they have been absent from the work and fellowship of Catawba Presbytery and ask that they respond to the concerns of Presbytery in this matter." We also had extensive discussion concerning our struggling, small, declining churches and their revitalization and noted that three standing committees of the presbytery have some responsibility in this area as well as the newly appointed Special Committee authorized at the stated meeting of Presbytery last Fall. It was noted that we are required to help churches who report a membership under 51 members. According to the 2015 Minutes of Synod, 14 churches fit this criteria. A motion was approved that Mr. Jordan moved that "A letter be sent to the churches who reported under 51 members, expressing our desire to better know their needs, joys, and struggles that we might pray for them and encourage them." The Committee took no further actions and brings no recommendations to the Presbytery at this time.

Recommendation: That the report be received as information and printed in the Minutes.

Respectfully,
Greg Slater, Chairman

The report of the Committee on State of the Church concerning session records was presented and ADOPTED as follows:

Respectfully,
Gregory Slater, Chairman

The report of the Committee on Outreach was presented and RECEIVED AS INFORMATION as follows

 - Rev. Nilo Rios has filled the pulpit since the summer of 2015
 - The session asked Rev. Nilo Rios to stay on for 3 more months
- Other initiatives
 - Some discussion regarding the present refugee crisis and what the response of the church of Jesus Christ needs to be

Respectfully,
Heiko Burklin, Chairman

Mr. Burklin offered prayer for the refugee/immigration situation throughout the world.

The report of the Commission on the Old Brick Church was presented and ADOPTED as follows:

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION OF OLD BRICK CHURCH (OBC)

The Commission has met on one occasion since its last report to Presbytery: 19 November 2015. The Commission has scheduled its next meeting for 18 February 2016 at Bethel A.R.P. Church in Winnsboro.

Items:

After receiving the approval and support of Presbytery, the Commission at its 19 November 2015 meeting tasked Commissioners Chandler and Johnson to coordinate with a Fairfield County brick mason, Mr. Randy Sims, to have Mr. Sims repair some deteriorated mortar joints on the church building. Mr. Sims began work in December and will complete the repairs by 30 January 2016.

Likewise, with Presbytery support the Commission tasked Commissioner Cathcart to coordinate with Mr. Todd Hutcheson, a local contractor, to repair a fascia problem just under the roof decking along the south elevation of the building. Some decking deterioration just under the roofing had created some spacing, which invites varmint intrusion. Mr. Hutcheson completed the repairs in December 2015.

The Commission continues the gravestone stabilization and repair project it began in 2014 with Matthew Fletcher of Fletcher Monuments in Columbia. This effort has focused upon those stones and monuments which present a hazard or liability. The 2015 work (Phase II) started in December 2015 and is scheduled for completion in early February 2016. In this phase, 17 stones/monuments have been repaired/stabilized with five remaining.

Recommendation: That this report be received as information.

Respectfully submitted,
Oliver R. Johnson, Chairman

The report of the Commission was presented and considered item by item as follows:

Vacant Churches: At the present time the Presbytery has 14 Vacant Churches, with 6 actively searching for a new Pastor. The Vacant Churches and their Moderators are: Blacksburg ARP Church, Active Search Committee, Jim Klukow, Moderator; Faith Presbyterian Church (Sumter), Non-Active Search Committee, Scott Moore, Moderator; Hardeeville First, Non-Active Search, Marty Taylor, Moderator; Hopewell, Active Search Committee, Dwight Pearson, Moderator; IBL, Non-Active Search Committee, Mark Hering, Moderator; Lemira Presbyterian Church, Non-Active Search Committee, Brian Peake, Moderator; Neely's Creek ARP Church, Active Search Committee, Andy Putnam, Moderator; New Hope, Non-Active Search Committee, Clyde McCants, Moderator; Rogers Memorial, Non-Active Search Committee, Billy Fleming, Moderator; Smyrna and Hickory Grove, Active Search Committee, Boyce Wilson, Moderator; Union ARP Church, Active Search Committee, Neely Gaston, Moderator; Westminster ARP Church, Non-Active Search Committee, Rev. The Commission on the Minister and His Work met at First ARPC, Lancaster, SC on Tuesday, January 26, 2016 at 6 p.m. The Commission met with James C. Robbins of Ebenezer ARPC about his desire to come under the care of Catawba Presbytery as a theological student. The Commission also considered supply agreements, laboring outside the bounds requests from Scott Moore and Andrew Stager. The Commission also considered a possible amendment to the Rules of Procedure of Catawba Presbytery. Neither the present Form of Government nor the Rules of Procedure provide a method for a mission preparing to become a congregation to call a pastor. Also, the mission is not an organized congregation to comply with the Form of Government. The Rules of Procedure would need to be amended in order to provide such a method to allow a mission getting ready to organize to call its first pastor.

Recommendations:

1. That the following supply agreements be approved:
Faith, Scott Moore; First Columbia, Dale Ralph Davis, First Hardeeville, elder Mac Baldwin and ordained clergy for communion services; Hickory Grove and Smyrna, Boyce Wilson; Hopewell, Guy Smith and Dwight Pearson; Lemira, Dan Rowton; Union, Neely Gaston and Watson Gunderson; Westminster, John. R. Riddle; White Oak, Clyde McCants; York, Barry Eller.
2. That churches with stated supply agreements use the form found on the Presbytery's website in making their requests or request a form from the Stated Clerk to use.
3. That the following be granted permission to labor outside the bounds of Presbytery beginning April, 2016: Andrew Basham, Billy O. Fleming, Neely Gaston, James L. Klukow, J. Michael Lashley, Scott Moore, Jonatan Simmons, and Andrew Stager.
4. That James C. Robbins be received as a student of theology and if the way be clear that a Service of Recognition be officiated by the Moderator and his name be added to the roll of the Students of Theology.
5. That the name of Martin Cramer be removed from the roll of students of theology effective March 9, 2016.
6. That the Rules of Procedure of Catawba Presbytery be amended as follows:

1. Amend IX, Section F, Appendix A by adding a new Section 3 as follows:

Section 3: Securing a Pastor for a Mission Preparing to Organize as a Church

- a) The Leadership Committee of the Mission shall select from the Mission group a representative number of members to serve as a Pulpit Nominating Committee.
- b) Once the Pulpit Nominating Committee has been selected and the chairman designated, the names shall be submitted to the Provisional Session for approval.
- c) The Chairman of the Pulpit Nominating Committee shall immediately contact the Chairman of the Commission on the Minister and His Work for instructions of proceed.
- c) When the Pulpit Nominating Committee has completed its search and the Committee on Church Extension has recommended the Mission to the Presbytery for organization as a church, a date for organization shall be established by the Moderator and Stated Clerk/Administrator. The Moderator shall appoint the Organizing Commission that will function in accord with the guidelines establish in the Rules of Procedure Article IX, G, IV.
- d) On the day of organization the following action shall occur:
 1. The Congregation shall be organized by a Commission appointed by the Moderator of Presbytery.
 2. A congregational meeting shall be convened by the Moderator of Presbytery or his designee. Once the Congregational Chairman is elected, he will lead the congregational meeting.
 3. The Pulpit Nominating Committee shall present the name of the prospective pastor to the congregation for approval along with the terms of the Call for the Pastor.
 4. If the vote for approval is given and if the way is clear, the newly-elected pastor may be installed by the Presbytery.
2. Re-number the remaining items of Appendix A accordingly.
3. Add a reference to the above change in IX, G, IV, Organizing a Mission as a Particular Congregation

7. That the Rules of Procedure be set aside in order to approve the change so that missions may start using it.

Respectfully submitted,
John M. Rogers, Chairman

All recommendations except recommendation 4 were ADOPTED. Recommendation 4 was postponed until after lunch.

REMARKS FROM THE PRESIDENT OF CATAWBA WOMEN'S MINISTRY

Hello – My name is Katey Powell – I am a member of First ARP in Lancaster. Thank you for this opportunity to speak to you on behalf of the Board of Catawba Women's Ministries.

I am pleased to mention that our board of 11 women covers the ages of 20 something to 60 something. It is a pleasure working with this group of women eager to serve God by doing the work of CWM.

Our vision that was passed down from ARP WM is to: Encourage and equip the community of ARP Church women to minister together for Gods glory and purpose. We recently made a change to the vision and added the word Connect. The word connect in this day and age has multiple meanings. In order to encourage and equip the women of the Catawba presbytery we need to connect by gathering. This form of connect is alive and well as we have set events that we continue to support and enhance each year.

This year we are off and running! We are planning ...

- A Meet and Greet at Tirzah ARP on April 30th
- Planning the CWM annual meeting in November 12th at First Columbia
- And also working on our biannual Women's Event in Feb of 2017
- Our last event in 2015 brought together 289 ARP women!

As we plan and execute these events please pray for us that we continually seek to glorify God.

These events are crucial in building our relationships with women in the Catawba Presbytery. Events allow us time to fellowship, meet new friends, put faces to names, talk about our church struggles, personal struggles and to pray for each other – all these creating a bond as sisters in Christ. So we want to thank you for opening your churches, helping with planning, praying for our ministry and encouraging the women in your churches to attend these events. These events are a time of much needed rejuvenation. Women have the chance to stop their busy schedules and spend time recharging themselves spiritually.

Another form of connect comes with technology. We have started a google account for the CWM board where we can upload our committee reports and other information so we have instant access. We are also using the Facebook page to send out information about events, etc. Recently at our annual event at Chester ARP we had the opportunity to live stream the meeting and allow our entire presbytery the chance to view the meeting on line or to watch the video at their convenience. Our hope was that churches farthest in the Presbytery such as Texas got a chance to watch. In our attempts at connecting we find ourselves with one foot in the land of technology and one foot in the land non-technology. WE have many women in the presbytery that love the idea of a website, FB, Google accounts, etc. and other women that don't have computers or an email account for that matter. At our last meeting we discussed the fact that a phone call is still the best and most direct form of communication. Our board has divided up the listing of churches in the Catawba presbytery and is actively trying to reach out and talk with a live person to find out the best type of contact. We are also asking how we can pray for them and if they would like for one of the board members to visit and/or come and speak to their Women's ministries.

So whether it is a flyer in the mail, a Women's event, a phone call, a website or FB news we are continuing to reach out and connect, encourage and equip the Women of Catawba Presbytery.

Our theme this year is: Living courageously in God's presence. Our Study Book is: Joshua – no falling words, by Ralph Davis. We are enjoying this study and its application. At the end of the first chapter there was a thought provoking question Can the church remain faithful after the eyewitnesses are gone? Scary to think about in this day and age. But the answer is yes if we cling to our Lord. Yet, it reminds me how important our work is in the church and for the church. Your work as men, leaders of this presbytery, spiritual leaders at church and in your families. Our work as women; wives that support and pray for you, mothers training up our children to remain faithful to our beliefs and sisters in Christ to other women. We like you, have a heart for the work of Christ's bride, the church.

So we covet your prayers and support in our efforts to encourage, equip and connect the community of ARP church women. Please pray for the CWM board members, Women's ministry officers in your churches. Knowing that you – the leadership of our presbytery are interested in our work is very encouraging to us. I end with our women's ministries key verse for this year, Joshua 1:9 ... Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not let your hearts be discouraged; for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go. To God be the glory as we remain faithful and work together to build up the body of Christ for His Glory.

Thank you.

Katey Powell

APPENDIX C

Dr. Charles MacDonald Coffey November 16, 1927 - November 11, 2015

Dr. C. Don Coffey of Davidson, NC died Wednesday, November 11, 2015. He was born November 16, 1927 in North Wilkesboro, NC, son of Charles MacDonald Coffey Jr. and Martha Lura Finley Coffey. Don attended McCallie School and received a BS in Business from Davidson College in 1949, where he was Phi Beta Kappa and received the Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award. He was a Second Lieutenant in the US Army Reserve from 1949 to 1954 and was in business with his father. He married Ruth King Wood Coffey on December 21, 1951 in Low Moor, VA. In 2011, Don was preceded in death by his beloved wife of 60 years, Ruth. He is survived by his children, Elizabeth Ann 'Betsy' Coffey Massey and husband, Richard; Stephen MacDonald Coffey and wife, Beth; Charles Welton Coffey and wife, Susan; Carol Blanton Coffey-Howard and husband, Stephen; as well as nine grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Don earned his Master of Divinity and later his Master and Doctor of Theology degrees at Union Theological Seminary in Richmond, VA. He served as pastor at Ridgecrest and Oakboro Presbyterian Churches in Stanley County, NC. Don was called to serve at Erskine Theological Seminary in Due West, SC in 1959 where he was Professor of Biblical Theology and Christian Education.

In 1980, Ruth and Don retired to Davidson, NC and were very active at Davidson College Presbyterian Church and in the community. They moved to the Pines Retirement Community in 2005. Throughout his retirement, Don continued to work as an Investment Manager with the Christian Social Justice Fund he created. At his memorial service at the Davidson College Presbyterian Church Mary Margaret Porter said: "Imagine my...surprise when I read in a recent Presbyterians Today article that Don would continue investing until his assets rose to 1 Million dollars whereupon he began to dole them out to organizations that were near to his heart and start over again. This type of real, open-handed generosity flowed from Don's firm conviction that the things that he, and we, own—our money, home, computers,—all of these things really aren't ours after all. Don recognized that all that we have is a gift from God and that we simply hold them in this life as stewards in trust to be used for neighbors in need near and far." Part of Don's legacy was that he enjoyed teaching his friends and family about his philanthropic philosophy so that they might continue his work.

Don became an ARP when he was received as a member of Catawba Presbytery October 22, 1964 after he had received his Doctor of Theology degree. In addition to his philanthropy, as a professor he touched many lives, ARPs and those in other denominations as well. Upon hearing of his death many wrote telling how Don influenced their ministries. Here are a few excerpts from some comments: ("In all of my theological education, I should say in all of my education, no one had more influence on me than Don Coffey.")--("I know that once I put down my resistance to Don, I learned so much from him.")--("Many times over the years, I have heard Coffey whisper in my ear. I remember mostly the gentle nudge to look further and deeper.")--("I had hanging on my office wall...a statement that read, 'Respect for the pupil is the secret of education.' It appears to me that Don Coffey epitomized that.")--("It seems that it takes the death of someone like Don to get around to saying how much they meant to us. I fear the seminary will never see a man like Don on the faculty again.")

In these and many quiet ways Don Coffey fulfilled his call of our Lord to witness to His Grace by word and deed!

REVIEW OF THE BOOKS OF CATAWBA PRESBYTERY TREASURER

P.O. BOX 1324

January 30, 2016

Dr. Guy Smith,

This is letter to inform you about my review of the records provided by Mr. Buddy Lever. Upon review, I did not find any inconsistencies with Mr. Lever's records. I found his records to be very organized and in great detail.

I do have recommendations, going forward, that pertain to Powerchurch, which is the software used by Mr. Lever to maintain the records for Catawba Presbytery.

- 1.) Enter all transactions, especially transfers, into Powerchurch. This will keep a good audit trail, if that were to ever come about.
- 2.) By entering all the transactions, Mr. Lever will be able to provide monthly bank reconciliations for both the operating account and the money market account.
- 3.) Because every transaction is entered into Powerchurch, this will eliminate the manual records that have been and are being kept by Mr. Lever.

Please feel free to contact me with any additional questions or concerns you may have.

Respectfully Yours,
