PRESBYTERY INFORMATION

At the meeting of Presbytery held in York on Tuesday, March 10, 2009, the following action was taken:

A call was extended from the Neely's Creek Church for the Rev Heiko Burklin. Heiko was received by transfer from Florida Presbytery and will begin April 1st. His installation will be at a later date. We welcome Heiko to our Presbytery.

Jamey Dagenhart, a Junior at Erskine Seminary, was received as a candidate. Jamey is a member of the First Rock Hill Church.

Presbytery also voted officially to begin a mission in the Indian Land area of Lancaster County. The official name of the mission will be Indian Land Associate Reformed Presbyterian Mission. After the meeting of Presbytery the Commission approved a call from the Committee on Church Extension for Rev. Gary H. Stiltner to become mission developer beginning April 1, 2009.

The Presbytery also elected Ed Mobley {Ebenezer}, John Adams {Tirzah} and Jerry Knight {Oak Ridge} to serve as the Provisional Session for Indian Land.

Each member of Presbytery is encouraged to pray for the mission at Indian Land and for Gary and the Provisional Session. If you would like to hear more about the work or how you may help, you can contact Gary at Gary@IndianLandMission.org.
