APPENDIX C (Continued)

2. The “parachute model,” where we would explore opportunities to begin churches in areas where we do not have churches, and build back toward our current churches.
3. The “adoption model,” where we would actively seek to find churches that would be a good fit to be taken into the ARP through our Presbytery.

APPENDIX F

REPORT OF THE MINISTER AND HIS WORK COMMITTEE

(NOTE: Due to the number of items on the Committee's agenda, the Committee met in two sections to complete its work within the proscribed time. The report contains the minutes of both sections.)

SECTION A

The Minister and His Work Committee convened at 3:15 p.m. on Friday, September 21, 2012. Rev. Charles F. Edgar call the meeting to order, and the meeting was opened with prayer.

The Committee examined Rev. Robert Washington, a member of the First Presbytery. His examination was sustained by the Committee. The Committee sends forth a seconded motion to the Presbytery that Rev. Robert Washington be received as a minister and a member of the Tennessee-Alabama Presbytery, transferring from the First Presbytery of the Associate Reformed Presbyterian Church.

The Committee next examined Rev. H. L. "Buddy" Roberts, a member of the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee of the PC(USA). His examination was sustained by the Committee. The Committee sends forth a seconded motion to the Presbytery that Rev. H. L. "Buddy" Robert be received as a minister and member of the Tennessee-Alabama Presbytery, transferring from the Presbytery of Middle Tennessee PC(USA).

The Committee reviewed the call from the Hopewell Associate Reformed Presbyterian to Rev. Roberts as its pastor. The Committee sends forth a seconded motion to the Presbytery that the Presbytery approves the call from Hopewell to Rev. Roberts.

The Committee next considered Rev. Gabe Cotton's request to be transferred to the Red River Presbytery of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church. The Committee sends forth a seconded motion to the Presbytery that Rev. Cotton's request be approved and that he be reported as a member of good standing to the Red River Presbytery.

The Committee met with Rev. Stephen Jordan concerning his injury. Full information concerning expenses is not available. The Committee will continue to monitor the situation.

The Committee's meeting with Rev. Jordan elicited information regarding the report concerning the closure of the Cornerstone Church which has produced negative reactions to the report. The Committee therefore sends forth a seconded motion to the Presbytery that the Presbytery commends Rev. Jordan as a candidate for ministerial positions, that the Presbytery appreciates his pulpit ability, and that the Presbytery notes that his ministry at Muscle Shoals attracted a good number of younger members.

APPENDIX F (Continued)

There being no further business, the Committee adjourned with prayer.

SECTION B

The Committee convened at 3:15 on Friday, September 21, 2012. Dr. Calvin Todd, chairman pro tem, called the meeting to order and opened the meeting with prayer. Present were Dr. Todd, William Kidd, and Jim Patterson.

The Committee considered Rev. Mark Linker's status as a minister laboring outside the bounds of the Presbytery. The Committee recommends that the Clerk of the Presbytery contacts Rev. Linker and advises him of the contents in Appendix C of the Manual of Procedure of the Tennessee-Alabama Presbytery concerning ministers without charge which states:

"A minister who is without charge or no longer engaged in work approved by the Presbytery shall retain his membership in the Presbytery for a period of one year from the date he relinquishes his work. During that period he shall automatically be approved to participate as a member of the General Synod. After one year, the minister must petition the Presbytery to labor outside the boundaries of the Presbytery. If the minister is seriously seeking a call, the Presbytery shall allow the minister a reasonable length of time to be considered by churches or other approved agencies. If a minister has not received a call to a ministry after three years have elapsed from the time he relinquished his work, then his name shall be removed from the roll of presbytery without censure."

Action will be taken as outlined in Appendix C of the Manual of Procedure for the Tennessee-Alabama Presbytery during the Spring 2013 Stated Meeting of the Presbytery.

The meeting was closed with prayer by William Kidd.

Respectfully submitted,
Charles F. Edgar
Chairman

GENERAL SYNOD OF THE ASSOCIATE REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

WHEREAS, on June 11, 2012, Dr. Steve Suits, Moderator of the General Synod, communicated to the stated clerks of the presbyteries that he requested recommendations from each presbytery of individuals to serve on the Moderator's committee to revise the Book of Discipline; and
